This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ADAM (Sir W.) Oculist A N S

2 ADDISON (Joseph). UNPUBLISHED POEMS, in his Autograph. 4to, calf, gilt

On the fly-leaf are the signatures of 'Cha: Warwick,' and Charlotte Addison: the elegant essayist having married, August 2d, 1716, Charlotte, Countess of Warwick, grand-daughter of Sir Orlando Bridgman. The first poem in the book is entitled 'Van's House, built from the ruins of White Hall,' written in 1703, referring to the new play-house in the Hay-market. The minor poems are: 'Upon Love;' 'When will thy heart grow tender?' written in 1715, during his courtship; for Addison experienced more than the common share of a lover's difficulties in obtaining a bride—and more than a common share of a lover's disappointments in retaining her; 'Love's a Dream.' 'To Mr. Pope, on his second subscription to Homer;' 'A Riddle upon Coals;' 'Death makes all equal;' 'A Riddle upon a Shadow;' 'Apollo once to Venus sued;' a beautiful Apologue on Love, in the autograph of his daughter, who writes in the margin, 'Papa's work;' and an inscription upon the tomb of Edward Henry, Earl of Warwick and Holland, who died August 15, 1721, aged 24 years.

There are various other Verses and Poems of 1726, and later, by Mrs. Madden. Songs to the tune of 'Under the Greenwood Tree,' etc., etc. Most of the Poems are written in a beautiful clear hand, one on the death of the 'Young Earl of Warwick,' and others by Addison's daughter, who writes in the margin Papa's Works. See Catalogue Raisonné, p. 15.

3 ADOLPHUS (John). Author. A L S 4to 1806

4 ALBUM AMICORUM FAMILIARUM ALARDI ET FABRICII. Containing numerous drawings, some of which are very spirited and curious. Autographs of different learned personages, etc. Oblong, 4to. Original morocco binding, gilt edges. 1624–56

This is a valuable Album or common-place book, containing many extraordinary specimens of caligraphy, and including verses by (or the autographs of) many distinguished literary persons of that time—Frederick Spanheim, 1645, John Fabricius, 1645, George Crasius, 1656, Petrus Lotichius, John Schmidt, 1635, George Mylius, 1635, Matthias Nicolai, 1634, Daniel Zwicker, 1635, Thomas Lindemannus, etc., etc.

Some of the drawings are very curious: in one Luther and Calvin are disputing, the Pope standing by and laughing; there are also divers emblematical devices, armorial bearings, etc.

The volume is very closely and beautifully written, and contains a great deal of matter. Among the Poetry are some German verses on King Charles the First, etc. It came from the Van Septem Collection, and sold at that sale for fourteen guineas. See Catalogue Raisonné, p. 14.

5 ALBUM OF A MUSICAL CLUB in Belgium. Dated 1581, 1583 and 1584. Small oblong quarto, half bound, morocco.

It contains the regulations of the Club, a discourse on music, poetry in its praise, etc., all in Latin; also the signatures of the numerous members, with the coats of arms, in colors, of thirteen of them.

6 ALBUM OF ERNRICUS STAUFFER. Containing about 70 Autographs of Illustrious Personages, English and Foreign, with Sentences and Mottoes attached, in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, German, French, Spanish and Persian, also a few exquisite drawings, two emblazoned coats of arms, etc. Small oblong, 12mo, in old morocco, gilt edges. 1632–1640

This pretty little volume contains some beautiful specimens of caligraphy as well as the autographs of many celebrated persons. Among these are Frederick, Duke of Wurtemberg, dated 1640: John Count of Hainault, 1633; John Freinshemius, the celebrated scholar, 1633; Saint George, 1634; Carolus de Montigni, 1633; Matthias Bernegger, 1634; Conrad Withmar, London, 1633; George Stewart, 1633; Steven and John Lingelshemius, 1633; Henry Harrison, Anglicus Cantabrigiensis, 1633; J. Podensteiner, Cambridge, 1633; Daniel Erastus Hurmobrodensis, Cambridge, 1633; J. W. Sartorius, 1633; also some foreign potentate signed Paul Frederic, 1633, and others. See Catalogue Raisonné, p. 14.

114 CORRESPONDENCE RELATIVE TO A POLITICAL INTRIGUE PLANNED BY LORD CASTLEREAGH TO ABDUCT BONAPARTE, IN 1803. Comprising 17 letters.

It commences after the failure of the plot, and chiefly refers to pecuniary claims of the principal agents, Madame de Bonneuil and a Mr. Walter Spencer. Lord Castlereagh, in reply to Mr. Spencer's urgent appeals to relieve him and Madame de Bonneuil from their distressing situation, in consequence of liabilities incurred by them in serving government, thus coolly closes the correspondence: "Lord Castlereagh presents his Comp'ts to Mr. Spencer, and does not feel it necessary to trouble him with any observations on the letter which he received from him. London, 12 Octo." Some passages of the lady's letters are quite piquant, and remarkable for an under-current of questionable kindness toward Mr. Spencer.

213 IRELAND (Wm. Henry). HAMLET. Autograph manuscript, folio, half russia

A correct transcript of the First, Second and Fourth Acts, and half of the 1st Scene of the Fifth Act.

"Mr. Samuel Ireland's enthusiastic admiration of the Works of Shakespeare being his general theme of conversation, that circumstance prompted his son, William Henry, to imbibe a similar sentiment. In consequence of such predilections, the latter had undertaken to copy out all the dramas of the Immortal Bard: which labor he commenced with the present fair specimen of Hamlet. The undertaking, however, thus begun, was put a stop to by the production of the spurious papers, attributed, by W. H. Ireland, to Shakespeare. So that the present volume is particularly curious, as having been the labor of the writer immediately prior to the celebrated fabrication which so long occupied the attention of the literary world."

307 ORIGINAL LETTERS COLLECTED BY WILLIAM UPCOTT OF THE LONDON INSTITUTION, Containing Two Thousand and Sixty-nine Original Letters and Autographs. Illustrated with three hundred and thirty-one portraits—the whole of an octavo size—comprising celebrated and remarkable persons in all stations of life; such as the family of George III., Peers, Bishops, Baronets, Naval and Military Characters, and Literary Men, including Poets, and Dramatic Writers, Travellers, Painters, Sculptors, Architects and Engravers; Actors, Composers, Clerical, Legal, Medical and Public Characters; Men of Science, Eminent Women and distinguished Foreigners. Bound in 31 vols., 8vo, half russia calf, forming one of the most complete and valuable collections of Autographs ever offered to the public. Mr. Upcott considered it the gem of his extensive collection, and refused £300 for the set. When the contents of the volumes are examined, they cannot fail to create a peculiar interest, embodying as they do many of the most remarkable persons. The Contents of the volumes are as follows:

343 RAMSAY (Allan). JOURNAL OF THE EASY CLUB. Containing the History and Proceedings of that Modern Society, for their first three years. With several Poems. 1715–'26, quarto, half calf.

Except a few printed poems, the whole volume is autographic.
Allan Ramsay was born in 1686; died 1757. He is a remarkable instance of uncultivated genius rising from the humblest station in life to high eminence as a poet. He was known to fame, and his company courted by the best society in Edinburgh, long before he gave up his trade of wig-maker. His earliest poem published was an Address, in 1712, to his fellow-members of the "Easy Club," of which he was one of the founders. "It was composed of young men of ability, who assembled together to spend the evening in hilarity. Each member was known by the name of some man of distinction, which he chose from a supposed resemblance to himself in talents or pursuits." The number was limited to twelve. The "Journal" contains poems by several of its members: the best by Ramsay.
